

Join the Dyess AFB Workforce!

Dyess AFB is constantly searching for qualified applicants in a wide range of career paths needed in support of the mission of our installation.

The list below is a projection of vacant positions. When management elects to fill, the vacancies are staffed through the Air Force Personnel Center (AFPC) located at Randolph AFB. AFPC advertises our vacancies on the website www.USAJOBS.gov. Be sure to search each week as status of positions can change after a 5 day minimum recruiting period.

Things to know:

- Determine your eligibility to apply. Read about the “hiring paths” located on the homepage of USAJOBS.gov to see what path gives you the opportunity to apply for government positions.
- Read the vacancy announcement completely, it will give you information on
 - hiring paths to use when applying
 - job description
 - pay
 - work schedule
 - required documents
- You can make a profile and upload your resume, transcripts, DD-214, etc.
- You can save job searches and can have USAJOBS notify you when positions are posted.
- You can make your resume “searchable” to recruiters using the USAJOBS data base.
